Can the French Stand Under their Debt?

[From the New York Evening Mail]

The French are beginning to adjust themselves to the new situation in which the war has landed them It is not a pleasant situation, in any respect and it has few relieving features The financial aspect is especially unpromising and ominous Before the war there was a large debt which was continually growing larger under the Napoleonic regime The debt is now enormous even as compared with the debts of Great Britain and the United States How will the people manage to sustain a government, and at the same time pay the interest on the thousands of millions that are now due the creditors of France?

At first it seems to be almost impossible to give any definite answer to such a question, but the problem is, after all, only desperate one and not wholly incapable of solution if a wise policy is adopted The very extent of the German triumph simplifies matters very much for the French, as regards one important and expensive branch of administration The reasons which reconciled the French to the maintenance of a large standing army exist no longer With or without such a force, France must abandon for a generation all thought of taking an aggressive and controlling part in European politics or of hostile demonstrations toward her neighbors. Her policy must be essentially one of peace and internal development

Under these circumstances the reduction of the French army to very small dimensions will be seen to be dictated by every consideration In this way alone a vast saving can be at once effected Thus, the army appropriations for 1870 were $77,562,061 Of this large amount $50 000 000 might be saved and still leave enough to sustain the nucleus of a large army The expenses of the navy might also be still more largely reduced in proportion to their total amount Last year these were $32 569,000 Suppose that $20 000 000 were saved in this branch of the service there would then be a reduction in the expenses of the army and navy amounting to $70 000 000, or enough to pay the interest at five per cent on $1,400,000,000

Again, the civil service last year cost France the enormous amount of $121,991,659 This was largely due to the centralization of administration, which has been so fatal to the freedom and the development of France It is because the national Government has gradually come to be regarded as the guardian of all interests the foster mother of all enterprises and improvements not in the strictest degree private and personal that the civil service of France has become so expensive Economy in this branch of administration will remove an army of civil officials from the bureaus of Paris and from the direction of affairs in the Provinces and leave the people at liberty to act for themselves in their own way and thus to learn the meaning and value of freedom in the only way in which any people can learn it—that is by using it.

It may turn out if the French are wisely led through the present crisis, that their present crushing misfortunes will prove "blessings in disguise." To abandon all hope of military or naval glory for at least a generation to come, will be no real calamity, if out of the present situation the French seize the only remaining opportunities for recovering what they have lost. They can make a nobler conquest than any the great Napoleon ever achieved—they can conquer themselves and substitute for the vanity that has so cursed them the legitimate self esteem that will come from their own disenthrallment, education and development

Official Letter from the German Emperor to President Grant

Baron Gerolt, Prussian Minister at Washington visited the President on the 11th inst, and addressed him as follows

MR PRESIDENT—I feel most happy to be the bearer of a letter from my most gracious Sovereign to your Excellency, conveying the notification that at the unanimous request of the Sovereigns of the German States and of the free cities of Germany to assume the ancient title of Emperor after the German Empire had been re-established by the union of the German States under one Constitution my august Sovereign has considered it as a duty to the common Fatherland to accept thankfully this dignity conferred by the confidence of his German confederates upon his Majesty and his successors upon the throne of Prussia In having the honor to present his Majesty's letter to your Excellency, it needs no new assurance from me that the Emperor and United Germany desire to maintain as heretofore their friendly relations with the Government and people of the United States for whose happiness and welfare they have always entertained the most sincere wishes

To this address the President replied

BARON GEROLT—The notification which you have conveyed to me relates to an event of great historical importance The States of this Union, which severally bear a relation to the others similar to that which Prussia bears to the other States of Germany, have recently made such sacrifices and efforts toward maintaining the integrity of their common country for general purposes in peace and war that they cannot fail to sympathize in similar proceedings for a like object elsewhere The new title which has been accepted by your Sovereign may be regarded as the symbol and the fulfillment on its part by Germany of that high purpose The disposition which you express on behalf of the Emperor of United Germany to maintain unimpaired and friendly relations with the Government and people of the United States is heartily reciprocated

Political Position of Gratz Brown

Since the election last fall in Missouri the name of Gratz Brown has frequently been mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for the Presidency His position however is thus defined by the St Louis Democrat of March 10

After personal conversation with Governor Brown we are fully authorized to state that as far as parties are concerned he has no wish but for the success of the Republican party in this State and in the country at large Unless he has "gone over" or "leaned back" to the Democracy since last Tuesday, we have no apprehension that any personal catastrophe so terrible has happened In view of his election by Republicans and Democrats Governor Brown especially desires to avoid what may seem offensive partisanism for or against either, but he expresses himself as fully recognizing his position as an acknowledged Republican nominated by Republicans on a Republican platform This avowal is but in accordance with a life earnestly devoted to Republican principles and to such an advocacy of them as has left its enduring record on the history of the State and the nation We take Gov Brown to be morally incapable of the perfidy, and mentally incapable of the blunder of blotting that record by any attempt to travel off the Republicans of Missouri

A WARM PICTURE —A young rowdy who was disturbing a western minister during his sermon received the following eloquent consolation —"Thank God young man, the day is not far distant when you will be chained down to hell's brazen floor, and the devil with his three-pronged harpoon will pierce your reeking carcass, and pile the red hot cinders of black damnation upon you higher than the pyramids of Egypt, and fry out the pride of your heart to grease the gudgeons of hell with "

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN DATES TO MARCH 30.

EUROPE

Probability of the Restoration of Napoleon.

BERLIN, March 29 —From the World's cable dispatch There has been a correspondence between Bismarck and the Central Committee of Paris, the latter representing that the Thiers government was unsupported by the country and the election of a new Assembly became necessary The committee offered meanwhile to pay in a few days the first instalment of the indemnity due to Germany Bismarck's reply was favorable

The opinion here is strong that the restoration of the Empire by aid of the imperial army is inevitable

The Negotiations at Brussels.

BRUSSELS, March 29 —No sitting of the Peace Conference was held to-day and the time for the second meeting is undetermined It is rumored that events in Paris cause the delay of negotiations

Illness of the Queen of Sweden.

STOCKHOLM March 29 —The illness of the Queen has assumed such a character that no hopes are entertained of her recovery

Dispatch from Bucharest.

BUCHAREST, March 29 —The Roumanian Chambers have been dissolved and the ministry remain in power The town is quiet

WASHINGTON CITY

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, March 29 —In the Senate Senator Schurz in his speech referring to the letter of the Secretary of the Navy to the Admiral proceeded to criticise that document which he declared was such a jumble of constitutional doctrine and such a remarkable representation of facts and precedents, that it was properly addressed and the Secretary of the Navy probably considers it well to tell that story to mariners [Laughter]

He disclaimed any feelings against the President but had some feeling for the fundamental law The administration would not be broken down unless it broke itself down

A controversy then occurred between Schurz and Morton

Harlan addressed the Senate in reply to Sumner, and concluded by moving to lay Sumner's resolution on the table.

Sumner appealed to Harlan for an opportunity to reply, but the latter insisted on his motion

The yeas and nays being called for, the Clerk commenced and continued to call the roll Sumner vainly attempted to address the Chair, but was finally imperatively called to order by the Vice President, who ordered the roll to proceed Harlan's motion to table the resolution was agreed to—yeas, 39 nays, 16 The only Republicans voting no were Patterson, Robinson, Schurz and Sumner.

Bayard opposed the tabling but was paired with Carpenter on the other side Those absent or not voting were Bayard, Caldwell, Carpenter, Fenton, Ferry of Conn, Flanigan, Lewis, Logan Morrill of Me, Morrill of Vt, Spencer, Tipton, Vickers and Wilson

OREGON

There is not a spare house in Salem, says the Statesman, but much inquiry for them

George Moore, who came to Oregon in 1845, died at Salem on Wednesday of heart disease.

The savings department in the bank of Messrs Ladd & Bush at Salem is now fully in operation.

The Statesman reports that roller skating becomes more popular at Salem each week of its trial

From the Roseburg Ensign Mr Walker writes us from Oakland that about twenty men started out on the 20th inst, in search of the lost men mentioned elsewhere The tracks of the lost men were discovered on Coos river, and five of the party went on in pursuit, the remainder returned

The Jacksonville Times of the 25th says Postal Agent Underwood passed through town last Thursday night He gave us great encouragement with regard to the establishment of the mail route to Batte etc He informed us that his visit extended as far as Wahratch and that the westward bound cars are filled with emigrants for Oregon, many of them in good circumstances He says the rush for this State is unprecedented

The Jacksonville Times of Saturday last talks thus to the Herald Not content with assaulting Governor Grover through his appointees, this high principled Democratic sheet (!) covertly attacks the Governor himself without cause or provocation It does not attack his politics, but what is infinitely dear to him his personal probity It accuses him of precisely the same offense for which it belabored Ben Holladay and Williams last spring—that is contributing money to a corruption fund. It openly accuses the Governor of contributing $1 000 to a corruption fund in Portland last spring, in order to carry Multnomah, that fund had of course, but one object—to corrupt voters at the polls—to buy them—just what the Herald was accusing Holladay of

PERSONAL NOTES

The Kennebec Journal says, "In his best days Mr Colfax, with all his fascinating manner, never commanded in a greater degree the respect of the House than Speaker Blaine now holds it." Could words say more?

A Rome correspondent of the London Telegraph has had an interview with the Pope who mistook him for an artist in colors or marble, instead of words The journalist mentioned his calling, when the venerable prelate said "It is all the same. Walter Scott was a painter, Byron was a sculptor, but Shakespeare the most wonderful of all geniuses, was both painter and sculptor at the same time—the sovereign artist of the world "

F M Spencer, of the Cincinnati Times, who has just died, was one of the most indefatigable workers on the Western press During his connection of nearly twenty years with the Times he has completely filled the department of general utility having acted as reporter, reviewer, dramatic critic, news editor, leader writer and contributed stories, sketches and poems many of them widely copied on a great variety of subjects Few men of his calling have shown more energy perseverance and versatility

It is pleasant to learn that men who have disgusted you by a beastly vice have yet their redeeming qualities, and hence there is satisfaction in the assurance that the two drunken Senators whose terms expired on the 4th instant (Yates and Saulsbury) were, in most respects, as faultless as their fellows Says "Van," a well known Washington correspondent, "They were men of ability and thoroughly honest Neither has ever made a dollar out of his position though many of their sober associates who came here a few years ago poor are now quite wealthy

It is said that when Secretary of War Rawlins died, President Grant asked General Sherman to name some one to be his successor Sherman named four persons, either of whom in his judgment, would be a very suitable man These four persons were Senator Morton, General Dodge General Sprague and General Belknap The President hesitated for some time but finally, through the influence of ex Congressman Wilson, of Iowa the place was given to General Belknap of that State This, at all events is the way the story goes This General Sprague is the same man who is now manager of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company here

The London Saturday Review says that if either President Grant or his supporters in the press believe that the British Commissioners are about to sell Canada, they will probably not accept an assurance that they are utterly mistaken When the people of Canada at any time become the subjects of bargain and sale, they must negotiate the contract themselves and receive the price of the transfer

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

From Marseilles

LONDON, March 29 —A dispatch from Marseilles says all the right authorities have suspended action for the present, because the National Guards refuse service All business is stopped Manufacturers have asked the authorities to be allowed to resume their work The authorities replied yes, but the workmen must be kept with arms stacked, as a conflict was probable

WASHINGTON CITY

General Political News

WASHINGTON, Marc... ... Committee ... engaged ... persons from ... it is probable they will make ... report before Congress ...

There is some dissatisfaction among ... members at the neglect of Speaker Blaine to make the appointment of the standing committees of the House

Fred Douglass had an interview with the ... yesterday He strongly favors the annexation of Dominica and says the Dominicans are far superior to the Haytiens The Government of Hayti is no Republic, but the worst form of despotism He regrets Sumner's course, and thinks he will change his views after reading the report of the Commissioners, if not, then Douglass will regard his opposition as factious, and Sumner as the first foe of the colored people on the continent

The Bible and Geology—No 2

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

SIR—One of the chief objections to the word "period" for "day," in the narrative of the creation, is the impress which the word day seems to have made upon the law of the Sabbath The language of that law is very definite "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy Six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God, in it thou shalt not do any work thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter thy man servant, nor thy maid servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates, For in six days the Lord made Heaven and Earth the sea, and all that in them is and rested the seventh day, wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it "

But what does this language mean to secure? Does its force lie in the word day, or the word rest?

The comment in Ex 31 15 upon the law "Six days may work be done, but the seventh is the Sabbath of rest, holy unto the Lord", impresses the idea of rest from labor The repetition of the law in Deut 5 13 14 "Six days thou shalt labor and do all thy work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God, in it thou shalt not do any work," enforces the duty of rest The appeal to the creation "For in six days the Lord made Heaven and Earth, the sea and all that in them is and rested the seventh day, wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day and hallowed it," enforces the idea of that appointed rest still more strongly The original statement, Genesis 2:2 3 "And on the seventh day God ended his work, which he had made, and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it because that in it he had rested from all his work, which God created and made, puts the emphasis upon the same idea of rest and holy worship Then the essence of the Sabbath law is sacred rest a seventh part of time Its design was not to decide the question of the days of creation It gives no opinion and passes no dictum upon the length of those days It gets strength from the divine example of resting after the work of creation It does not pretend to conform its day of rest with God's rest day for that had a morning, but no evening or close Its reference to that rest day or seventh period was probably to show the deep significance of the Sabbath law as established in the constitution of things The law of rest for the land and the people every seventh year [Lev 25th], and of the jubilee year of rest after seven times seven years in which liberty should be proclaimed through all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof, and every man should return unto his possession and to his family, in which they should neither sow nor reap, points to a provision in material affairs and in the human race for rest as specific as night and sleep, though not as well understood by physicists and physiologists It may yet be found that the Jewish captivity of seventy years in Babylon that the land, as alleged, might enjoy her long neglected Sabbaths was not solely positive or disciplinary to the people but an absolute necessity for its recuperation, so as to support them in future centuries Our Saviour said the Sabbath was made for man The Bible intimates that there is a law of seventh ... which pertains to this world in all ages That rest day, God's Sabbath, still continues and will continue we know not how long

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 31, 1871.

Tariff Tricks.

On the 13th inst. there was a discussion in the House of Representatives on the tariff. Resolutions were passed to allow foreign salt and coal to enter the United States free of duty. When the vote was taken quite a number of free-trading Democrats responded in the negative. Randall, of Philadelphia, and a number of his Democratic associates did not want free coal. They were afraid of the political consequences of voting for it. Representing coal producing and manufacturing districts, they were in favor of free trade in the abstract, but wanted the particular industries of their immediate constituents protected.

This sort of jugglery is no new thing with that party. With ready facility it runs one set of principles in one State and another set in another. In 1844 it managed to carry Pennsylvania for Polk by making the people of that great State believe it was more in favor of protection than even the Whigs led by Henry Clay. The truth is that Pennsylvania and several other manufacturing States adhere pertinaciously to protective principles, and Democrats who want votes are obliged to recognize the fact. So Democratic Congressmen from Pennsylvania, Connecticut and New Jersey vote for measures which their brethren from New York City, Indiana and Oregon call swindling abominations.

The Republican position on this subject is briefly this: The doctrine of protection, added to that of revenue, while proposing to [illegible] the duties on imported goods simultaneously [illegible] serve two purposes, specially seeks to protect the industry of the country against the damaging competition of foreign and cheaper labor, and in this way to encourage its development. Its whole merit lies in this single principle. Whether a nation shall resort to the expedient of a tariff for this purpose, in addition to that of revenue, and if so, how far, and in respect to what articles, is a question that depends altogether on circumstance. Of course such a tariff ought not to be so high as to defeat its purpose for revenue. Let there be a wise discrimination as to articles to be selected, and as to the rate of duties, both of which are questions of fact; and then we cannot see any just ground of objection to a protective tariff, provided that experience shows it to be necessary for the purpose had in view. If it promotes home industry and home manufactures, and if it be necessary to this end, then it is certainly a good thing for the people. Democratic Congressmen recognize this fact when they vote for the principle in certain cases in order to [illegible] favor with their constituents.

Singular Vindication.

The [illegible] paper at Eugene City—the [illegible] heard of Judge Boise's opinion on State warrants, and favors its readers with a double-leaded article on the subject. We quote this from the Guard's article:

> Judge Boise decided that the commission or committee appointed by the Legislature was legal and had a right to inquire into the legality of all the warrants issued by Sam. May, and to audit the claims and instruct the Secretary to draw his warrants for the payment of the amounts allowed. The decision vindicates the Democracy in every particular, and coming from a Republican Judge, and [illegible] who is admitted to possess very strong prejudices [illegible] cannot be doubted and cannot be [illegible] as being carried through party prejudice for political preferment.

Having [illegible] somewhat to say on this subject [illegible], we do not design to go into it [illegible] again; but we desire to remark that the decision of Judge Boise vindicates [illegible] party in a very peculiar manner when we take into account the fact that the present Democratic Secretary of State has done the very same thing which that decision declares to have been illegal in the official action of Secretary May. That is to say, Secretary Chadwick has drawn warrants when there were no appropriations; and this is exactly what the decision of Judge Boise condemns. Singular manner of "vindicating the Democracy in every particular!"

About Grant and Sumner.

It is asserted continually by malevolent journals that President Grant caused the removal of Senator Sumner from the Committee on Foreign Relations simply because of Sumner's opposition to San Domingo. In connection with this matter it may be as well to cite what Secretary Fish wrote to Mr. Motley, in reply to the latter's insinuation that he had been recalled from the English mission because of his friendship for Mr. Sumner, and his sympathy with him in this affair:

> Mr. Motley must know, or if he does not know [illegible] alone in his ignorance of the fact, that many Senators opposed the San Domingo treaty openly, generously, and with as much efficiency as the distinguished Senator to whom he refers, [illegible] have nevertheless continued to enjoy the undiminished confidence and the friendship of the President, than whom no man living is more tolerant of honest and manly differences of opinion. [illegible] quite plainly, not to say sharply, [illegible] difficult to see what answer could [illegible] Mr. Motley did not attempt [illegible]

[illegible] Golden Age, Theodore Tilton's new paper, is remarkably fresh, inviting and readable. We have seen two numbers of it, and its columns bear evidence of being controlled by a man who writes because he has something to say. The paper is remarkably catholic in tone; its editor states that it will not be "painfully religious nor absorbingly political," and that it will give all sides a fair hearing. It "will invite Dr. Brownson to explain why he is a Roman Catholic, and Dr. Bellows to answer why he is a Unitarian; it will offer Mr. Greeley an opportunity to argue as a Protectionist, and Mr. Bryant to rejoin as a Free Trader; it will give Horace Bushnell a chance to express himself against female suffrage, and Mrs. Cady Stanton the privilege of claiming the enfranchisement of her sex." If this paper, sparkling with the best things from Mr. Tilton's pen and inviting contributions from the best pens among all classes of thinkers, does not succeed, it will be strange indeed.

From the last report of the late Commissioner of the General Land Office we learn that the disposal of the public lands has risen to 8,095,413 acres, being 359,201 acres more than the previous year. The largest item in this disposal is that under the homestead laws, amounting to nearly half of the whole. Of the cash sales and military bounty warrant locations, the larger portion was disposed of under the pre-emption law in tracts of 160 acres and less to actual settlers. To these add the purchase of railroad lands, and the location of Agricultural College scrip in small tracts, and we have no difficulty, says the Washington Chronicle, in figuring up 50,000 new rural land owners in our population in a single year's operation of the public land system.

Senator Corbett on the Sumner Affair.

When the debate was had in the Senate relative to the removal of Sumner from the Foreign Committee, Mr. Corbett said:

> Mr. President, this Government is a Government of majorities. The President of the United States is elected by a majority of the people of this country. Parties are also governed by majorities; and when we, as a party, gather together to decide upon questions of importance with regard to that party, in my opinion it is the duty of every one belonging to the party, when the majority have decided on a particular course, to submit to that decision. I, with other Senators perhaps, believed that it was not advisable to change the Senator from Massachusetts from the position that he had occupied upon so important a committee of which he has been head so long and the duties of which he has discharged so well. I say I may not have been of the opinion of the majority of our friends that it was advisable to transfer him from the head of that committee to the head of another committee; but a committee appointed by the majority of this body, whose duty it was to select these committees—a very unpleasant duty to perform—have discharged that duty to the best of their ability, and have presented to the Senate a list of committees of this body in accordance with the usual rule and have done the best they could under all the circumstances, in my opinion. In the case of a business firm, every member of that firm is in duty bound to submit to the majority of his copartners in business as to the expediency of adopting a certain course; and the same rule, in my opinion, should prevail in all political bodies and parties.
> This may be deemed a matter of importance to the Senator from Massachusetts, and many of us may think that he is best fitted to fill this position. Others may think it is better for other causes and to avoid other troubles to make the change. The majority of the dominant party in this Chamber have decided that that was the better course to avoid those troubles by changing the Senator from Massachusetts from the head of this committee to the head of another; and it seems to me that we are in duty bound to sustain the committee and the majority of our party friends in this respect. Therefore, I can see no good to arise by delaying this question, no good to arise by discussing it. That discussion may create divisions among our party friends. I have no doubt it will be very satisfactory to our opponents to see this discussion go on and this division created; but I hope the good sense of our own party friends will lead them to forbear the discussion, and proceed to vote upon this question, and decide it to-day.

Legislation against the Ku-Klux.

Referring to the persistent endeavors of the Democrats to defeat all legislation designed to suppress the organized bands of Ku-Klux assassins, the New York Tribune thus talks to that party:

> Gentlemen opposite! we respectfully warn you that you are making up a record that will expose you to a fearful judgment in the next Presidential election. The people of the United States do not believe in wholesale assassination as a political maneuver, and will uphold no party that resorts to it. You may carry most of the intervening elections, when the issue is not distinctly and vigorously pressed home upon the masses; but when we come to 1872, you will assuredly be beaten by the votes of men who are not politicians, and are now not voting at all. We shall only have to drive home the facts which prove your complicity in the crimes now convulsing the South, and you will inevitably go under. So go ahead, and beat the legislation proposed by the Republicans if you can. We shall hope to outnumber you anyhow, but if you succeed in defeating legislation to protect the loyal men of the South from the crimes to which they are now exposed and subjected, your fourth successive discomfiture in a Presidential struggle will be signal and conclusive.

O[illegible] Salmon in Chicago.

We clip the following from the Chicago Tribune of March 7th, and as the bright-eyed Jessie said when her father speared the salmon at the Dalles, in 1869, "Bully for Bross!"

> Five years ago Chicago had about as much to do in a business or by social intercourse with Timbuctoo, in Africa, as with Portland, Oregon. The opening of the Pacific Railway has now brought it about as near for freights as New York is in summer by canal and lake. On Saturday last ex-Lieutenant Governor Bross received a large box of most delicious smoked salmon, a present from Captain J. C. Ainsworth, President of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company. It left Portland on the 8th of February and arrived on the 4th of March. Hundreds of tons of this most delicious fish are annually caught in the Columbia River. They are put up in all the usual ways for family use. Fresh salmon now come from California, but we refer our dealers to Portland for the canned, smoked, and otherwise prepared article, as being the much larger and cheaper market. When the Northern Pacific Railway is completed, Chicago and the entire Northwest will be fully supplied with this delicious luxury from the Columbia River and the streams that flow into Puget Sound.

Disabilities.—The bill reported by Senator Roberston of South Carolina, and which he asserts he intends to press the passage of to the exclusion of all others, relieves all persons subject to all disability imposed by the Fourteenth Amendment, except those belonging to the three following classes: First, Members of Congress who withdrew from their seats and aided the rebellion. Second, All officers of the Army or Navy, above the age of 21 years, who left the service of the United States and aided the rebellion. Third, All members of the various State Conventions which adopted the secession ordinances, who voted in favor of the adoption of such ordinances. We do not desire to be tyrannical, but for our individual selves we protest against any disabilities being removed, any favors granted, any clemencies exercised, towatds those who have been traitors, until we protect those who have been our friends, and the friends of the Government. Had we our way, says the Pittsburg Gazette, no single immunity or privilege should be granted to a rebel at heart and soul, until those he was daily oppressing, were relieved from his tyranny. We have gone just about as far as manhood will consent to go, and if these Southern aspirants for the reputations of midnight assassins, cannot be induced to forego the pleasure of such notoriety by peaceable measures, then forcible ones should be adopted, and preserved in, until they learned that the Government of the United States could, and would, strike just as hard now, as it could and did eight or ten years ago.

Fred Douglass, who has been down to see San Domingo, has come out against Sumner in relation thereto. Dispatches of this morning give the views of Douglass on the proposed annexation and on Sumner's course.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Hon. George C. McKee, Representative in Congress from the Vicksburg district, is prominently mentioned by Mississippi papers in connection with the seat in the Senate declined by Governor Alcorn. General McKee served with credit in the Union army throughout the war. During his service in Congress he has been very influential in the delegation from the Gulf States.

The Newark Courier says: "We expect great good sense and thorough, conscientious discrimination and wisdom in the proceedings of this Joint High Commission. It will be especially regretted on the part of our people if the impending questions between the United States and Great Britain fail of settlement. By all means let us balance accounts as they now stand and begin anew."

The Louisville Courier-Journal (Dem.), in referring to the recent outrages in that State, pertinently says: "Does the Legislature connive at these things? Has it surrendered the State to the Ku-Klux? Must the weak and lowly among us seek elsewhere for that protection which our local government owes but refuses to the poorest of our citizens? In the better day coming will any man boast that as a trusted guardian of Kentucky's peace and honor, he winked at these infamous disorders—nay, encouraged and abetted them by emasculating our tribunals and gagging the witnesses and victims of such crimes?"

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

San Francisco, March 30.—It has been the warmest day of the season. This evening the wind is southwest and clouding up.

From present appearances the trial of Mrs. Fair will not end before the middle of next week. The defense will have a lengthy testimony to offer. The prosecution will be considerable in rebuttal, and arguments on both sides will be unusually long.

Property holders opposed to the extension of Montgomery street straight, held a meeting this afternoon and appointed a committee to raise funds, employ counsel and contest the legality of the act in the courts immediately.

Work on the excavation for the foundation of the new City Hall at Yerba Buena square has been commenced vigorously, and the entire work will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

It is rumored that Charles L. Wiggin, late the Mayor's clerk, will succeed Foulke as Supervisor of Internal Revenue.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

Los Angeles, March 30.—The case of Sheriff Barnes vs. the County of Los Angeles, which involves fees to the amount of $10,000 per annum, was decided to-day in favor of the plaintiff.

The Dominguez family, arrested on a charge of murder, were discharged on account of the insufficiency of the evidence.

The wind has injured a great portion of the barley crop in this county beyond recovery.

ARIZONA.

San Diego, March 30.—The Tucson (Arizona) Citizen has the following:

On the 8th inst., an Indian at Camp Apache, thrust his lance through the heart of a man named Perry Redman.

Late advices say the Indians declare their intention to wage war on the whites.

On the 10th inst., a train of wagons en route from Grant to Infantry camp with Government supplies was attacked by Indians. Two men were killed and sixteen mules stolen.

On the 14th inst. a herd of cattle was attacked at Infantry camp and two herders killed. Later in the day, the Indians fired on the sentinels at the Post.

On the 18th, Hughes' ranch, near Camp Crittenden, was attacked. One named Wm. Cook, was killed, and a lot of stock run off and other property destroyed.

On the 20th inst., at Tubac, L. B. Worster was killed at his house, and a Mexican woman taken prisoner.

Gilroy, March 30.—Advices from San Joaquin river and surrounding country, say the rains in that section have been very light. Cattle are dying in large numbers. Dealers in stock are driving their cattle to the mountains.

Crops are looking well.

THE TERRITORIES.

The $2,000 required to make a railroad survey from Wallula to Walla Walla has nearly all been subscribed at the latter place.

A larger amount of snow than ever before known is reported in all parts of Montana Territory. If this is true the Columbia river may be quite high in June.

The proprietors of the Northern Pacific Coal Mines, between Helena and Blackfoot, are arranging to have a pottery erected near by, they having encountered vast deposits of very superior clay.

For several years there has been a story of a white buffalo bull of colossal size being seen occasionally in the Yellowstone valley. And now comes a story that he has been killed. Probably the whole thing is a hoax.

A law of the new mining district of Eastern Montana forbids Chinamen from working in those diggings; and another forbids the white miner selling Chinamen ground—provides that any ground claimed by Chinamen is "jumpable."

CURRENT NOTES.

A Philadelphian has invented a clock that will measure the one ten-thousandth part of a second. The clock is described as a wonderful affair. The dial plate which is sixteen inches in diameter, is separated into 5,000 parts, and the indicator revolves twice every second. The clock is set upon a table, beneath which the pendulum revolves, and the intricacy of the affair may be imagined when the statement is made that the entire works can be placed in a small cigar bar. The Government officers have accepted the instrument for the purpose of measuring the velocity of projectiles.

The annual crop of coffee in the world averages about 713,000,000 pounds, or about two-thirds of a pound to each man, woman and child on its surface. Of this amount the island of Java furnishes nearly one fifth, or about 140,000,000 pounds. The greater portion of so called "Old Government" Java sold in this country is a humbug. All the coffee plantations of Java and other Dutch East Indies are controlled by the Holland Government, which allows the "Maatchappy," or Dutch Trade Association, to ship the best coffee direct to Amsterdam and Rotterdam. It is here sold at regular monthly sales, and the price is regulated by increasing or diminishing the quantity.

The Democratic press very generally characterize the Broadhead letter as "the true American political creed."

Cheap Water Pipe.

"THE ASPHALTUM PRESSURE PIPE COMPAny" of San Francisco, having purchased of the patentees the sole right to manufacture on this coast, are now making an article at their works, at Alameda Point, that will supply the general want of a cheap and durable water pipe. The invention originated in France, where these pipes are extensively used, as well as in Germany; in fact, all over Europe, almost entirely superseding for all ordinary purposes the use of iron. It is no new thing, having been in use twenty years.

Its Durability.

Being imperishable and insensible to atmospheric influences or chemical properties of the earth, it never changes, and is consequently much more durable than iron, which corrodes, and in time leaks.

It is a Non-Conductor,

And will not freeze except at a remarkably low temperature, and even then its expansive power is greater than that of frozen water. In warm weather it acts as a cooler for water passing through it.

Neutrality to Acids and Alkalis.

This pipe is not affected by acids and alkalis, nor is it affected by galvanic currents—consequently is invaluable in conducting telegraph wires under ground through tunnels and under bridges.

Elasticity.

The elasticity of this pipe prevents its bursting from outward shocks or concussions. The interior of the pipes being glazed, are as smooth as porcelain, and consequently are never clogged by adhering sediment.

Lightness.

The mean weight of these pipes to iron is as one to five, which not only facilitates handling, but reduces the cost of transportation.

Laying the Pipe

Is a simple matter—can be laid by any laboring man of ordinary intelligence; but the Company, if required, will always furnish a competent person, free of expense, to oversee the proper laying of the pipe. Contracts taken for any required length of pipe from water or mining companies, and warranted to stand according to contract.

Pipe Under Pressure

Can be seen at the office of the Company. We are the only parties manufacturing this pipe on the Pacific Coast under this patent. All other offered is spurious and an infringement.

Cheapness.

The cost when laid, including connections, is about one-quarter that of lead and one-half that of iron.

We manufacture this pipe in lengths of twelve feet, and ship it everywhere, by all sorts of conveyance—no special care being required. We manufacture it of any size from one to twelve inches.

Pressure.

We manufacture according to the pressure required from 1 to 600 pounds to the inch, and guarantee it to stand the pressure.

Prices.

1 inch,	10 cents per foot	For pipe capable of resisting a pressure of 150 lbs to the square inch.
2 inch,	20 "
3 inch,	30 "
4 inch,	40 "

6 inch,	60 "
8 inch,	$1 10 "
10 inch,	$1 25 "
12 inch,	$1 50 "

This pipe being made of a combination of paper, canvas, and asphaltum, in lengths of twelve feet, should not be confounded with molded asphaltum pipe in lengths of four feet.

Death on the Poets.—The [illegible] correspondent, "A. of Lane [illegible]" [illegible] on the poets. His last effort [illegible] deed was perpetrated in the [illegible] nesday morning. A well known couplet of Burns was quoted thus:

> "Oh wa some one the giftie gie us
> That we might see oursel's as ithers see us!"

If that don't make Bobby [illegible] turn in his grave and groan, then, indeed, he sleeps [illegible]. The quotation is almost bad enough to be [illegible] with the Lane county "A," and pretty near as bad as the Arkansas editor's quotation of Shakespeare's lines:

> How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is
> To have a thankless child.

The "A" of Arkansas quoted thus:

> "Ingratitude, thou art more thankless
> Than a serpent's tooth."

The Central Pacific Railroad.—We have received a new "map of the [illegible] road and its connections, [illegible] very complete advertisement [illegible] which the company [illegible] traveling public, but it [illegible] affair. Annual Ball of the U. A. O. D.—The fourth annual ball of Concordia Grove, No. 1, U. A. O. D., will be given at Turn Verein Hall, Tuesday evening, April 4th. The proceeds of the ball are to be devoted to the Widows' and Orphans' fund of the Society. Tickets may be procured of the general committee of arrangements, Messrs. [illegible] Jubitz, A. Staeglig, Henry Weber, Henry L[illegible] and J. Lefurt.

Deserters in Custody.—A Sergeant belonging to the garrison at Fort Stevens arrived on the Dalles boat last evening having in charge five deserters from one of the posts below. He captured them somewhere up the Columbia [illegible]. The prisoners were lodged in the city jail last night, and the Sergeant will proceed to-day on the Astoria boat.

Temperance Lecture.—Rev. W. H. Rogers will deliver the fourth lecture of a series for the Good Templars, at their hall in Carter's building this evening, at half past seven o'clock. Subject: "The Morals and Victory of the Temperance Cause." The doors will be open free to all and everybody is invited.

Income Returns.—The Assistant Assessor requests us to state that all persons not returning their income within ten days after the [illegible] notice has been served on them, will be liable to a penalty of 50 per cent on the tax. [illegible] receipt of such notices will take notice and act accordingly.

Caving.—A number of workmen were engaged yesterday in caving down huge blocks of earth from the top of the bank at Clinton's [illegible]. The earth thus thrown down is to be used for filling up Second street to the grade.

No Court Business.—The U. S. District Court met yesterday morning, but adjourned without transacting any business. No other Court in session.

CITY.

A Salutary Lesson.—The late prosecutions and convictions in the U. S. District Court, for offenses, the perpetrators of which have heretofore too often escaped, have created a popular sensation which will doubtless go far toward procuring a higher respect for law than has of late prevailed among certain classes of men. Two or more have been convicted and sentenced for evasion of the revenue laws: two, at least, have been convicted and sentenced for selling liquor to Indians, and three have been convicted and sentenced for engaging in and assisting to defeat the administration of justice by spiriting away a witness. The latter cases were: John Brown, Fred Oberheim and Thos. Scott, of Salem. They were each fined $500 and costs, the latter amounting to about $70 in each case. Brown and Oberheim paid their fines, but Scott being a poor man, was sent to jail. Mr. John Dolan, Deputy Marshal, arrived from Salem yesterday, having delivered the prisoner to the jailor of Marion county. The result of these trials and convictions has had an effect upon the communities where the parties are known, of the most salutary character. At [illegible], we learn, the Indian rancheria has been broken up, and several parties who were suspected of selling liquor unlawfully, have closed out and left. We have not heard of a drunken Indian about this city for the last two weeks, and it is probable that the persons who have supplied them with liquor, have taken the hint from the proceedings of the court. We think it not probable that the next grand jury will be called upon to investigate like charges against men who lay any claim to character. If the effect of the late proceedings prove as salutary and as lasting as we believe it will, the community must acknowledge itself greatly indebted to the diligence and faithfulness of the U. S. Attorney, the Marshal and his assistants who have worked these cases up.

Death of a Noted Indian.—All the old settlers about Oregon City and the East side country to the forks of the Santiam, will remember an old Indian who went by the name of "Crooked Leg." He belonged to the Molalla tribe and was a chief among them. There was a story about the manner in which he got the peculiar crook to his leg—in some foray against the enemies of his tribe—but we do not remember it well enough to attempt its relation. Crooked Leg has been for many years, now, on the Grand Ronde Reservation, a decrepit and very old man, but still a chief among his band, and their [illegible] in all wa-was with the officers in charge of the Agency or with outside parties. Last week old Crooked Leg died and his tribe went into mourning on the grandest scale known in Siwash society—wailings and lamentations, beating of enormous drums; annointing the hair with unguents of native pitch, etc., day and night. Blankets, beads, trinkets and traps of all kinds were gathered together by his family and buried with him. In short, old To-to (Crooked Leg's Indian name) had a first class send-off to the happy hunting grounds. There is a late story of To-to which we get from a gentleman now on the ground: About three years ago, To-to sickened and died—that is, he was apparently dead enough to be buried. His family applied to the Agent for a coffin in which to deposit his mortal remains, and the carpenter of the Agency made a good one. But about the time the afflicted relatives got the coffin home, To-to suddenly came to life and countermanded the funeral. As soon as he got able to be up and attend to business, he traded off the coffin to an Indian that was sure enough dead, for a few buckskins, and the latter is now off again for muck-a-muck. It is believed now that the old fellow is not playing possum, but that he has really gone and shuffled off this mortal coil.

A Sensible Offer.—The friends of our State Agricultural Society, throughout the State, are already [illegible] this year for a good Fair. Besides the usual premiums offered by the Society, we have noticed several special premiums offered by various parties for excellence in some particular product or performance. One of the most sensible, however, that we have heard of, is one proposed by Mr. C. E. Dubois, furrier, of this city. He goes for the woman who adds to the requisites of a good housewife some of the ornamental accomplishments of the lady. He offers a set of furs worth one hundred dollars, to the woman who [illegible] the best bread made by her own hands, of three different bakings not more than a week apart; who can also conscientiously say that her husband, brother or father has not within a year, had occasion to grumble about his [illegible] being off, etc., and who can also play the Star-Spangled Banner and Yankee Doodle respectably on the piano and organ. Now, this is what we call an encouragement to model women. The lady who gets that premium, with the shirt-button clause insisted upon, will be the greatest lady on the fair ground.

Beating the Poets.—The Herald has a correspondent, "A of Lane," who is rather heavy on the poets. His last effort and outrage upon a poet was perpetrated in the Herald of Wednesday morning. A well known couplet from Burns was quoted thus:

> "O we some one the giftie gie us,
> That we might see oursel's as others see us."

If that don't make Bobby turn over in his grave and groan, then, indeed, he sleeps well. The perversion is almost bad enough to be original with the Lane county "A," and pretty near as bad as the Arkansas editor's quotation of Shakespeare's lines:

> How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is
> To have a thankless child.

The "A" of Arkansas quoted thus:

> "Ingratitude, thou art more thankless
> Than a serpent's tooth."

The Central Pacific Railroad.—We have [illegible] a new "map of the Central Pacific Railroad and its connections," which is not only a very artistic advertisement of everything about which the company could wish to inform the traveling public, but is also quite an ornamental affair. At the top of the map is a border containing two rows of photographic views of noted places along the road, and the right and left hand borders have similar views. Among these are a series of views among the mountains as viewed from the road—wild and grand beyond anything to be seen elsewhere than in the Sierra [illegible]. There are views of deep cuts, tunnels, snow sheds, mountain gorges, trestles at dizzy heights, mountain lakes, etc., etc. The traveler could not possibly find a more complete "guide-book" than in this map, as every point along the road is noted, with tables of distances, altitudes, names of offices and officers, fares, time schedules, and, in short, everything else desirable to be learned by the Central Pacific Railroad tourist.

Annual Ball of the U. A. O. D.—The fourth annual ball of Concordia Grove, No. 3, U. A. O. D., will be given at Turn Verein Hall, Tuesday evening, April 4th. The proceeds of this ball are to be devoted to the Widows' and Orphans' fund of the Society. Tickets may be procured of the general committee of arrangements, Messrs. A. Jublitz, A. Staeglig, Henry Weber, Henry Ludwig and J. Erfurt.

Deserters in Custody.—A Sergeant belonging to the garrison at Fort Stevens, arrived by the Dalles boat last evening having in charge four deserters from one of the posts below. He had found them somewhere up the Columbia river. The prisoners were lodged in the city jail last night, and the Sergeant will proceed to-day by the Astoria boat.

Temperance Lecture.—Rev. W. H. Rogers will deliver the fourth lecture of a series for the Good Templars, at their hall in Carter's building, this evening, at half past seven o'clock. Subject —"The Morals and Victory of the Temperance Cause." The doors will be open free to all, and everybody is invited.

Income Returns.—The Assistant Assessor requests us to state that all persons not returning their income within ten days after the printed notice has been served on them, will be liable to a penalty of 50 per cent. on the tax. Parties in receipt of such notices will take notice and act accordingly.

Caving.—A number of workmen were engaged yesterday in caving down huge blocks of earth, from the top of the bank at Clinton's Point. The earth thus thrown down is to be used for filling up Second street to the grade.

No Court Business.—The U. S. District Court met yesterday morning, but adjourned without transacting any business. No other Court in session.

Quiet.—Everything was quiet along the river front yesterday. The steamers and ferry boats arrived and departed on schedule time; and that was all.

AMUSEMENTS.

Concert.—The programme for the concert at Philharmonic Hall next Tuesday evening, has been issued. It contains quite a number of performances by the Twenty third United States Infantry Band, the Mozart Glee Club, etc.

Oro Fino Theater.—Miss Lizzie Ingles' benefit last evening was attended by a large and very fine audience—a flattering compliment to a young but deserving actress. Miss Ingles personated the character of Tilly Dragglethorp very creditably, giving the provincial dialect a far better pronunciation than is attained by most actresses even after the study and practice of years. Her personation was in some respects second only to Mr. Bates' Job Armroyd. Mr. Bates did Job with excellent effect, and Mr. Vinson made a decided character of Benjamin Bluiker, the cockney "as 'ad a Humble hin the Ring—the P. Har, you know." The play has plenty of life and fun in it, and quite enough of the pathetic. It will be produced again to-night for the last time, with the same cast as before. The melange performances last evening were greatly applauded, especially the local songs by Cook, and by Miss Ingles and Cook.

New Legal Firm.—Messrs. George H. Durham and Charles A. Ball have formed a partnership under the name of Durham & Ball, for the practice of law. These gentlemen, though young in the profession, are studious and active, and will make business warm for some of the older limbs. Their office is in Porter and Weigand's building, No. 109 First street.

Dental.—See Dr. Freeland's dental card in to-day's paper. His office is in Parrish's building; entrance on Washington street, next door to Front.

Favors.—We are indebted to Purser Goodhue, of the steamship California, for files of late northern papers.

Co-operation Among Farmers.

A correspondent of the Country Gentleman urges co-operation among farmers for the following named purposes:

To lessen the cost of production of farm produce.

To lessen the cost of articles required to be purchased.

To cheapen the marketing of all kinds of farm produce.

The maintenance of a reasonable price upon all farm products.

The first object, to "lessen the cost of production of farm produce," is carried out in the cheese factory. Are there not other branches of agricultural industry which may also be benefited by association? The satisfactory working of the butter and cheese factory is certainly very suggestive.

The second object, to "lessen the cost of articles required to be purchased," can certainly be accomplished by association. Farmers can by this means secure articles at wholesale or producers' prices, and save the retail profit, which is seldom less than twenty-five per cent. A neighborhood may combine and employ one or more of their number to make purchases by the quantity, as they now employ salesmen for the cheese factory.

There ought not to be so many non-producing middle-men. As far as possible, the producer and the consumer ought to be brought together and dispense with the expense of maintaining middle men. This can be done, to a great extent, by each neighborhood making its purchases in bulk, at wholesale prices.

Oregon Musical Institute.—The following pupils belonging to the Second Division were transferred to the First Division, at the meetings on Tuesday and Saturday afternoons, having passed a full examination yesterday afternoon: Douglass Ladd, Frank Phelps, John Harrington, Robert Church, William Daly, Kate Harrington, Emma Hill, Josy Lambert, Mercy Johnson, Ruth Horner, Nelly Warren, Robert Morse, Frank O'Conner. Frank O'Conner deserves special mention. The little fellow passed an examination that would be creditable to some of our amateurs.

To whom it may concern! May it be known that whenever Congress of the United States of our glorious Republic reduces the price of postage stamps, I will promise to reduce the price of paper collars to less than Twenty-five Cents a box, and I have also on hand one of the largest stocks of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods in the city of Portland, and defy competition. Isaac Barman, corner First and Alder streets, Odd Fellows' Temple.

J. O'Neil & Co. have just received and opened one of the best assorted lots of Gents' Furnishing Goods and Clothing ever brought into this city, consisting of all kinds of Clothing, Collars, Cuffs, Gloves, Ties, Hosiery, and a large invoice of the Star Shirt, the best fitting and best made Shirt now worn. Their goods are of the latest styles and choicest patterns. Persons wishing spring goods and styles should not fail to give them a call. They cannot but be pleased with both their goods and prices.

We say it now as we've said it before;
That G. M. Martin's Grocery Store
Is where you can make the best pickings
Of all sorts of game, and of chickens,
Of fresh butter and bouncing big eggs,
And fish of all sorts, dried or in kegs;
Of the best kind of bacon and hams,
And of pickles and jellies and jams;
Vegetables and fruits of the season,
And everything good that in reason
You can ask or wish to make a good dish.

Spring Styles.—Kohn & Fishel, as usual, are the first to fill their store with the new Spring Styles of Clothing and Furnishing Goods. Their stock is very large, and their goods of the best quality, and latest styles. Messrs. Kohn & Fishel buy their goods in large quantities, consequently, get them at low rates and can afford to sell cheap, which they intend to do.

They respectfully invite their friends and patrons to give them a call.

Catarrh is a common disease, so common that snuffing and "hawking" reach you at every turn. Your foot slips in its nasty discharge, in the omnibus or in church, and its stench disgusts at the lecture or the concert. The proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy offers $500 reward for a case of Catarrh he cannot cure. Sold by druggists or send sixty cents to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 133 Seneca street, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive it by mail. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. The genuine has Dr. Pierce's private U. S. Government Stamp on it.

Invigorate the Responsible Organ.

The stomach is the responsible organ of the system. If the digestion is imperfect, every member, every gland, every muscle, every nerve and fiber is more or less out of order. All the fluids are depraved. The brain is clouded. The spirits are depressed. All dyspeptics know this to be the truth. It is not, however, half the truth. Columns would be required to enumerate the pains and penalties of dyspepsia. Nor could any pen do them justice. Tens of thousands feel them; no man can describe them.

Can they be prevented? Can they be relieved? Can they be banished at once and forever? Unquestionably they can. No dyspeptic has ever taken Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in vain. Believe no one who says the complaint is incurable. This great vegetable stomachic will eradicate it—is eradicating it in thousands of cases over which medical practitioners have shaken their heads ominously, saying, "Nothing can be done."

The faculty has its fallacies. One of them is that indigestion is the most difficult of all the ordinary ailments of mankind to combat and subdue. This is a mistake. Nothing can be easier than to conquer it if the true specific be administered. The vegetable combination which has become famous throughout the civilized world as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an antidote to the disease which has never been known to fail, and fortunately it is everywhere procurable. If you wish to fool with the dyspepsia, try the pharmacopoeia prescriptions. If you want to root it out and prevent its recurrence, take the Bitters daily. There is no discount on the testimony in its favor. If there is a man or woman who has ever tried it for indigestion without being benefitted, the fact has not transpired. Universal, uncontradicted praise avouches its wonderful tonic virtues.

CATARRH
REMEDY

I do not wish to inform you, reader, that Dr. Wonderful, or any other man, has discovered a remedy that cures Consumption, when the lungs are half consumed, in short, will cure all diseases whether of mind, body or estate; make men live forever, and leave death to play for want of work, and is designed to make our sublunary sphere a blissful Paradise, to which Heaven itself shall be but a side show. You have heard enough of that kind of humbuggery. But when I tell you that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will positively cure the worst cases of Catarrh in the Head, I only assert that which thousands can testify to. I will pay $500 reward for a case that I cannot cure. A pamphlet giving symptoms and other information sent free to any address. This remedy is SOLD BY MOST DRUGGISTS IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD.

Price 50 cents. Sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of 60 cents, or four packages for two dollars. Beware of counterfeits and worthless imitations. See that my private Stamp, which is a positive guarantee of genuineness, is upon the outside wrapper. Remember that this private Stamp, issued by the United States Government expressly for stamping my medicines, has my portrait, name and address, and the words "U. S. Certificate of Genuineness" engraved upon it, and need not be mistaken. Don't be swindled by travelers and others, representing themselves as Dr. Sage; I am the only man now living that has the knowledge and right to manufacture the genuine Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and I never travel to sell this medicine.

WIT AND HUMOR.

A disappointed lover in Bridgeport Ct., has sued his scornful lady love, to recover a gold watch that he claims he only lent her.

A New York merchant absent-mindedly copied a love-letter to his "heart's idol" in the letter book of the firm before sending it.

The editor of the Barnstable Patriot having received a bank-note detector, returns thanks, and modestly asks for some bank notes upon which to test its accuracy.

A Rochester man wants Vinnie Ream to make a statute of Ben Wade, as he appeared in San Domingo, mounted on a bull, making a journey into the interior.

A blunt but honest preacher recently declared that some people cannot see the difference between sounding the gospel trumpet and blowing their own horn.

An enthusiastic auditor at the late Nilsson concert in Cleveland imparted the information to his fond wife that "that fiddler," meaning Vieuxtemps, "was Parepa's husband."

The Chicago Times' fashionable intelligence mentions that "there were more ribbons and false hair on the streets and in the parks yesterday than there have been on any day this year."

Mary's lamb has turned up in a Leavenworth advertisement, which thus records its fate:

But Mary, she has one thought left,
And smilingly asserts,
"Its wool is now woven into six
Of Woolf & Brother's Shirts."

Miss Laura Ream overhears such remarks as these at Chicago social gatherings: "Look how elegantly Mrs. S. is dressed. It is the first time she has been out since her divorce. There is Mrs. L., too, and the case in the papers so lately. Would you have believed it?"

The merchants of Terre Haute, Indiana, who do business upon corners infested by the miserable leeches upon society, have hit upon a novel plan of getting rid of their presence. After the loafers have comfortably established themselves, they bang out a placard inscribed, "Wanted, Employment for these Roosters."

An old negro woman, in accounting for lack of discipline among youngsters, insists that it is because their mothers wear gaiters. "You see, when we wore low shoes, and the chilun wanted whippin', we just took off a shoe mighty quick and guv 'em a good spankin'; but now, how's a body to git a gaiter off in time? So the chilun gits no whippin's at all now-a-days."

The prejudice against parting the hair in the middle lingers with the Chicago Republican. Says that paper: "Darwin says that such of the monkeys as have long hair on their heads invariably part in the middle. Which is why he remarks, and the reason is plain, that the hirsute resemblance between some men and some monkeys is to be taken as good evidence of family relationship."

Professor Agassiz says that the California big tree, of which a section was taken East, is 1,810 years old, as that is the number of the layers, and it is clear that one layer has grown each year.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

PORTLAND, Thursday, March 30, 1871.

Gold at New York, 110⅜.

Currency at this city is 90½c buying and 91½ selling.

Exchange on San Francisco—coin, ½ of 1 per cent; currency, ½ per cent.

Exchange on New York, 1½ per cent.; telegraph transfers, 1¾ per cent.

Rates of interest on 30, 60 and 90 day loans 1 per cent.; outside rates 1¼@2 per cent. for longer terms.

The money market is without any notable change since last report. Recent large purchases of wheat in the interior will have the effect to render the market easier than it has ruled for two or three months.

Business matters in this city and throughout the State have a promising aspect. Trade is visibly improving in nearly all lines. The advent of good weather has rendered it certain that the usual spring cropping will be done, and hence all classes of people are looking forward confidently to a prosperous season. In view of the facts that large accessions to our population are expected during the spring and summer; that a considerable proportion of the new-comers are known to be men of means; that the railroad enterprises of both east and west side are now assured; and that other projected internal improvements are likely to go forward during the coming year, our immediate future appears bright with promises of prosperity.

The state of the merchandise market may be summed up:

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS are unusually dull. There is no good demand for any class of goods in this line. The season for plows and spring goods is about over, and the demand for seasonable goods for early summer has not yet set in. The present indications are that farming machinery will be a trifle higher than last season. The efforts of our importers have been to reduce the prices, but thus far the prospects for anything in that direction are unfavorable.

HARDWARE—We make no change in quotations this week, although the tendency is somewhat firmer. A very fair business has been transacted in this line. Several large shipments have been made during the week to points east of the Cascade mountains, while the trade with the Wallamet valley has been fair and steady. The Hardware and Metal Board of Trade, of San Francisco, have reported favorably upon the matter of altering the method of rating nails, the operation of which will be to hold 10s and larger sizes at present base prices, and to advance 8s, 6s and 4s each in ratio. The change has not yet gone into effect, but undoubtedly will in a short time.

DRY GOODS—We report no change in quotations. The trade in spring goods is opening with encouraging prospects. Our dealers have had an active week.

GROCERIES—Business steady and without much change in prices. There is a slight but steady downward tendency in coffees.

PRODUCE—The market presents somewhat improved symptoms. Wheat rules firm at quotations, and lately a few lots of extra choice grades have been sold at figures private, but believed to be higher than the open market price. The demand for export continues, and we hear of two more vessels on the way here from San Francisco to load for England. Their cargoes, however, have been engaged, and their arrival will have no particular effect upon the market. No change in quotations of flour. Oats are going up. Bacon is in only moderate request at our quotations. As the season advances eggs are coming down a trifle. All other articles in our tables may be reported as last week.

LAND DEPARTMENT

OREGON & CALIFORNIA RAILROAD COMPANY.

SALEM, OREGON, October 22, 1870.

THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT IS MADE FOR information of all concerned:

First—Congress has granted to the Company all alternate sections of the public lands designated by odd-numbers within a distance of thirty miles on each side of the railroad, excepting lands to which a pre-emption or homestead claim had attached prior to the withdrawal by Government of the lands co-terminus with the first division of located line from East Portland to Jefferson, at 12 M. February 16, 1870. The second division of located line from Jefferson to a point six miles south of Roseburg, May, 1870, and from the last named point to the California line, 1870.

Second—Persons who have valid pre-emption or homestead claims to any tract on an odd numbered section can purchase the same from the Railroad Company at the Government price of $1 25 per acre in greenbacks, and upon very favorable terms, if they so desire, by filing an abandonment of their claim in the U. S. Land Office, blanks for which will be furnished by the Land Agent of the Company. Such purchase from the Company has these advantages over a purchase from the Government: The party can lease the land if necessary; he can sell the land or mortgage it; he is saved the payment of lawyers' or agents' fees, and expenses of witnesses to go to the Land Office to "prove up" his claim; he can get his title perfect in less time, and he can buy on credit at a low rate of interest.

Third—No sales will be made by the Company until the land is listed over to it by the United States Land Commissioner and Secretary of the Interior.

Purchasers are thus assured that the title they obtain is perfect.
